Worship = Walk the Talk

The Voices of Easter

I am a person of habit. During the celebration of the special days on the Christian calendar, I return to some unique programs to help me on my journey of faith. It is also during these days that the 'kid' in me surfaces. Listening to the Easter StoryKeepers during my Bible classes shows my childlikeness. Another example is listening to The Twelve Voices of Easter, a text drama written by Dr. Woodrow Kroll and Keith Ghormley. You too may listen to it when you Google The Twelve Voices of Easter.

This production describes people during the Easter story. People who had contact with the Savior. People who knew the Christ. Eyewitnesses. What was their response to the Savior of the world? Faith? Denial? Betrayal? Deception? Evasion? Faith? Affirmation? Assurance? Doubt? Adoration?

As stated in the introduction of the program, the Easter story demands a response from all who hear His Word. As to the witnesses then who had to decide if Jesus was the Messiah of the world, we too face that same decision. What does Jesus mean to you? To me? Will we also join the voices of Mary Magdalene, Cleopas of Emmaus, Thomas and others, and recognize that Jesus Christ is the risen Lord, our Saviour

My response must be like that of Thomas who stated My Lord and my God. That is not the voice of doubt, but the voice of faith and hope.

QCS exists because as stated in its vision - -to prepare and equip the student to impact their world for the glory of God. It is our prayer for the graduate of the school to live for Jesus. May we all be equipped for every good work so that others can tell we are Christians by our love. That's a voice of faith, love, adoration, assurance, hope. True life!

This Thursday, April 21st, there will be two special presentations by some members of the Brooklyn Tabernacle Choir for our SS at 8:00 A.M. and at about 9:15 A.M. for the ES. If you would like to hear and see what is happening at either assembly, you are more than welcome to join us.

Thank you to all who made last Saturday a great day with fun, fellowship and food. If you were not there, you missed a great experience. It was neat to see all the yellow T Shirts throughout the campus. It is encouraging when I see parents interacting with their children, something at times we do not do because we are so caught up in our busyness. Praise the Lord for opportunities such as the Family Sports Day. Thank you PAC.
